Silver Cliff falling 10 cents to 4.85, and Leadville 30 cents to 2.35, and Amie rising to 2.15 @2.10. Green Mountain continues strong at 3.20, and the stock is in good demand at that figure. BULL-DOMINGO.

ONE OF THE EIGGEST MINES IN COLORADO, AND ITS LITIGATIONS—THE TRUE INWARDNESS AND MANIPULATIONS OF A NEW-YORK SYN-DICATE-FACTS AND FIGURES PUT IN PRINT -JUDGE HALLETT'S RULINGS IN A COURT OF

Correspondence of The Cincinnati Enqui DENVER, Col., April 16, 1880.

The Bull-Domingo, by reason of its value and the ontinuous litigation attached to it, has been ans at least, almost as well known as the Little Pittaburg: but, unlike the latter, it shows its hundreds of thousands in sight. Pending a final decision as to who owns the property lawfully and equitably, what the property is worth, how liti-gation commenced, who by and for what, it is necessary to give a brief history of the various stages through which it has passed from date of discovery up to the present time.

and B. W. Thyog, in ascending what is called Bine Mountain, situated about three miles north of Silver Cliff, on October 6, 1878, thrust his pick into the ground to help him in his ascent, and saw among the grass roots of the sed upturned by this act the precious metal for which he sought. It was sunday morning, and Mr. Razick gave to his discovery the appellation of Domingo, the Spanish definition of which appellation of Domingo, the Spanisa dominion of Marick that name is known in the English language. Mr. Rarick and his partner, W. H. Overby, sold their interests in the discovery to Montgomery, Davis & Thyne for quite a small sum, and with this sale, on November 1, began a contest for possession of the surface ground on which mineral was the covered between the purchasers of the Domingo and the owners of a parallel lode called the Johnny Bull. This contest raged with determination and bitterness to such an extent that blood was shed, and each threatened the life of the other. On July 25, 1879, S. C. Shaeder arrived in Shiver

And three days later, on July 28, at 11 o'clock at night, he, in company with J. T. On the 15th of August he bonded the Domingo from B. F. Montgomery, W. H. Davis and R. W. Thyng for $150,000, but never could have accomplished this had the Domingo party ascertained that the Johnny Bull bond had been or could be obtained, as this was the only insamee of nearly thirty attempts that had been successful.
When Shaeffer went to the mine on July 26 it was held by the Johany Bull party with a large force of armed men, a dead-line was established by the country, and the workload the Demingo mine were quartered in shastles immediately ourside of the Bull grounds. All the ore extracted by the Bull party was restevined by the Domingo. Lithgation between these factoms lasted for nearly eight months, one party being in possession and then the other, and it was difficult to tell who would be the victor, as both were reduced to circumstances approaching impoverishment, es pecially the Domingo workmen, who had not been paid for shaeffer, bonding both these mines, acted as a benefactor, and sotiled the fearful dispute. He paid the Montgomery party $5,000 cash on the formingo bond, which paid their workmen the contract for the Domingo mine with Shaeffer he re-re-sented that he had a written power of attorney from it. W. Thyng (who owned half of the mine, but was absent) to act for him. The contract was signed by W. H. Davis, B. F. Monigamory and R. W. Thyng-by B. F. Montgomers, his attorney-in-fact. August 22 P. But the fact is, sharefler had nothing to do with the delivery of the deeds or anything else. Shaffer) was the assignee of Shaeffer's contract with Borsey. of Sharfler's contract with Borsey.

To cover up and strengthen their scheme B. F. Montgomery, November 12, bended the Benningo mine to S. C. schnefter's agent, John D. Bancrott, on the exact terms as the contract Schneffer had with Montgomery. Then Bancrott as aigned to William F. Shaffer, and pocketed the money Schnef-fer was entitled to. It looks squaily for Montgomery, as he extended the $75,000 of stock from December 15 to March 15, 1880, at Silver Cliff, went to Pueblo, and with nonchalance. issu, at Siver Chi, went to Puccho, and with noncommand, and with seemingly honorable intentions, assisted in making schneffer a tender, for a blunt to out down his one-fourth-interest, to be divided by himself, Clark, Shaffer and the Judas Bancroft then goes to Denver, and makes Bancroft the same contract as that had with Schaeffer. This was not all, Several times at Fueblo these men, Shaffer, Clark and Bancroft, urged the hnuy Bulls to deliver deed to Shaeffer, stating that he (Shaeffer) did not have the money to pay them, and to declare their contract with him off, and then Bancroft would bond the mine of them. But these city, devilish sty insimuations did not impress the Bull party with their honor, and they failed to accomplish their purpose, and Shaeffer held his ground against the New-York party and the agent who be-trayed him. Baccroft. But after they supposed themselves ortified with their last contracts, as against bhaeffer, and happy in their concelt of a victory over a trusting "tender-foot," Shaeffer went to Rosts, commenced suit, filed papers, laid lie pendens on the mine, entirely unknown to them, until quested his attorney to got Shaeffer's power of attorney, and go to Denver with them, which was done, and deceiving the atterney until after they had become in possession of the umos, and had deeds executed, they then, with the assurance and check which in latter days have been considered a Mining.

At Derver the New York crowd find Wells, Smith & Macon (attorneys for the Johany Bull and owners of one-fourth of the mines, and stated their contract was of, because Sharefer had not paid $80,000 on March 20. Knowing it would be impossible to get the title any other way, Clark and Bancroft threates them with the Shareffer lawsuit against the Johany Bull mine, stating that the mines were bought on October 20, when there was no dispute about the validity of Shareffer's contracts, William F. Shaffer stating at that lime that he was the terpresentative of the New York party and assignee of the Dursey contract, and as the Johany Bull party had been paid $5,000, and failed to complete that he was the terpresentative of the New York party and assignee of the Bursey (Johany Bull and $40,000 the distribution of the seasone of the complete in the sevent of the Shaffer (instead of Dorsey) thousand dollars were paid to the Johany Bulls and $40,000 to House the sevent of the Shaffer (instead of Dorsey). CLOSING PRICES OF PHILADELPHIA STOCKS.

Northern Pac. com. 263 274 TUESDAY, May 4-P. M. While the stock market was feverish and ansettled during the entire day, upon the whole it had a more confident tone than yesterday's market had, and in the final dealings a majority of the stocks show more or less improvement upon the last prices of yesterday. Several causes produced this condition of things. The recent decline in prices has encouraged a "short" interest sufficiently large to tempt some of the speculators of the second or third class to make an upward line in prices. The Treasury's large disbursements in payment of the bonds purchased last week and for the May interest (to which may be added whatever may b sum of bonds purchased to-morrow) have placed the money market beyond "want" at least for a few days. And it is likely that speculators may feel like making some demonstration of their approval of the Governor's action in vetoing the bill caxing foreign capital, which permits them to believe that the Canadian money is anchored to Wail Street and to it stock speculations.

The total transactions of the day amounted to 308,940 shares, against 412,800 yesterday. The specially active stocks were Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, Erie, Lake Shore, St. Paul, and New-Jersey Central Michigan Central was specially weak, and closed at its lowest price. Erie sold as low as 4112 and as high as 4238, but in final transactions was only 18 higher than at yesterday's end Houston and Texas was another weak stock; declining to 60, it rallied to 634 and closed at 623. Louisville and Nashville fell 2 per cent more to 123, and closed without recovery. Lake Shore, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, the grangers, C., C., C and I., and iWestern Union were the stocks showing the greatest improvements from the extreme declines. The market, as a rule, closed fairly steadier at the quota-
